Entrepreneurship Bootcamp Proposal

NJIT is the #2 Public University in the United States and is a diverse STEM-focused institution with an entrepreneurial spirit operating at the highest level of research (Carnegie R1 classification). NJIT's entrepreneurship program has been ranked top 50 by the Princeton Review for several years and has a newly launched Center for Student Entrepreneurship. Our exclusive two-week Entrepreneurship Bootcamp in Newark, NJ, is designed for ambitious university students worldwide who are eager to explore the fundamentals of how to think like an entrepreneur, learn how to go from idea to startup pitch, gain first-hand insights from successful startup founders, and experience the vibrant culture of the New York City Metro area.

This bootcamp is a combined effort of the Center for Student Entrepreneurship, the Martin Tuchman School of Management, and the Office of Global Initiatives at NJIT.
