Nationals without registered household in the Taiwan Area (Students)

Foreign students and Overseas Chinese students

Introduction

In order to allow Taiwanese nationals without registered households in Taiwan to attend college and above in Taiwan, any student applicant who holds a Taiwan visitor visa may apply through the online registration and certification system for a resident visa at the National Immigration Agency of the Ministry of the Interior after arriving in Taiwan.

Qualification

Taiwanese nationals without registered households in Taiwan (hereinafter referred to as nationals without registered households) are overseas Chinese students who have been approved to return to Taiwan for study through theNational Competent Authorities for Business Objectives (hereinafter referred to as overseas Chinese students).

Application

1. Overseas Chinese students as nationals without registered households who wish to attend school in Taiwan may apply through the online registration and certification system with an admission permit/notice or certificate of enrollment and registration provided by the attending school.
2. After acquiring a residence permit upon arriving in Taiwan and getting enrolled, the overseas Chinese students as nationals without registered households who need to extend their stay in Taiwan due to academic requirements shall apply for a residence permit renewal online within 3 months before the residence permit expires.
3. After acquiring a residence permit upon arriving in Taiwan and getting enrolled, the overseas Chinese students as nationals without registered households who need to change their residence permit content shall apply for a residence permit alteration online.

Inquiry

1. Inquiry for Application Progress
   After filling out and submitting an online application form, the overseas Chinese students as nationals without registered households may receive a set of confirmation numbers composed of 12-digit numbers. By gaining access to "application progress inquiry" under "progress inquiry", the students may key-in the conditions for inquiry so that the system will generate the relevant information automatically for the applicant to keep track of the application progress.
2. Inquiry for Priority
   After filling out and submitting an online application form, the overseas Chinese students as nationals without registered households may receive a set of confirmation numbers composed of 12-digit numbers. By gaining access to the "priority" section, the students may select from a wide range of services provided by the system to keep track of the application progress.

Online Payment

After the online application is reviewed and approved by the National Immigration Agency, please make your payment for the residence permit within 5 working days, with application content and price listed below:

1. Price of a residence permit: NT$500.
2. Price for alteration or re-issuance of residence permit: NT$300.

The system provides multi-payment options such as "international credit card", "ATM online", "virtual account payment", "e-Bill Payment", and "payment at the four major convenience stores in Taiwan". Regarding the payment option of "International Credit Card", this platform does not support China UnionPay and American Express, and only JCB, VISA, MasterCard credit cards can be used for online payment. After the payment is completed, no refund will be made.

E-residence Permit and Receipt Download

After the application is reviewed and approved by the National Immigration Agency and after the payment is made, the overseas Chinese students as nationals without registered households who file the application will receive an e-mail automatically sent by the system informing that the e-residence permit and receipt are ready for download. By signing into the system, the overseas Chinese students as nationals without registered households are able to download their e-residence permits and receipts from "e-residence permit download" and "receipt download" in the "download section".

Statement for Use of Online ARC Application, Extension and Modification System by Foreign Students and Overseas Chinese Students

1. The online system for foreign studentsand Overseas Chinese Students ("the System" hereinafter) is set up and maintained by the National Immigration Agency under the Ministry of the Interior ("the Agency" hereinafter) to facilitate the Agency in retrieving, reviewing, and approving the Alien Resident Certificate ("ARC" hereinafter) applications, extension and data change requests.
2. The System script, layout design, and other related copyrights are the property of the Agency, and the System application shall not be modified, counterfeited or faked, or decoded for improper use.
3. The Agency shall collect, process, and use the information you provide in the System pursuant to the relevant provisions in the Personal Information Protection Act of R.O.C. and the Enforcement Rules thereof. Appropriate protective measures have been adopted according to the law to prevent your personal information from being released, stolen, modified, or used or other improper purposes. In accordance with Article 28 of the Personal Information Protection Act, the R.O.C. government shall not be liable to compensation for damages to your personal information and rights caused by natural disasters, incidents or other force majeure, or illegal collection by a third party.
4. When an applicant or agency officer makes or reviews an application in the System with the Agency-approved certificate, it is deemed the act of the applicant or the agency.
5. The use of the System is considered agreement to the use of electronic documents as the way of presentation.
6. If you represent other than the applicant to submit, extend or change an ARC application, you are considered to have obtained the applicant's authorization. The Agency shall not be liable for any disputes thus arise between the aforementioned person and the applicant. The information you provide in the System must be accurate, true, and complete; otherwise, the Agency will be unable to review and approve your application and may impose penalty or enforcement to your detriment.
7. The Agency will request online payment of the standard fees pursuant to the Standards for Fees Charged for Entry, Exit and Immigration Documents when your application is approved. The Agency has not designated any travel agencies, immigration service agencies, private employment service agencies, or individuals as intermediaries. The Agency shall not be liable for any charges and fees arising from your commissioning of a third party for making application.
8. According to the Personal Information Protection Act, information provided or uploaded are used solely for the ARC application, extension or modification of foreign students and Overseas Chinese students. Those who provide or upload false information shall be held legally liable.
9. For details about the services available in the System, please refer to the Notes on Online ARC Application, Extension and Modification by Foreign Students and Overseas Chinese Students.
10. Uploaded documents in foreign languages should be authenticated by overseas embassies as stipulated, and a Chinese translation authenticated by the overseas embassy or a local notary public should be attached.
11. Applicants may edit their online applications before they are submitted for review. No more editing is allowed once successfully submitted. Applicants are advised to confirm if the application information is correct before submitting.
12. The process takes 5 working days to review an online application (excluding holidays and the time for submitting supplementary information). The System will notify applicants via e-mail if their application is returned due to need of correction or supplementary information and when the applicants can collect their certificates. Applicants should make the corrections or submit the supplementary information immediately after receiving the notification. [illegible] be provided within 3 working days from notification; If you fail to do so or if [illegible] nation is non-compliant, the application will be rejected. Identity verification is required for collecting the ARC. Please present yourself at the designated counter in your domicile's municipal or county/city service center on the specified date, and bring the receipt and your original ARC for certificate collection.
13. Applicants should pay the certificate fee via credit card, online ATM, virtual account, or e-Bill Payment within five working days after the approval. After the certificate is completed, the agency will inform the schools or students through e-mail to claim their certificate with their personal identification, payment receipt, and the original ARC at the city or county service centers of the administration corps.
14. For problems relating to the use and operation of the online system, please call the customer service hotline of the Agency's Immigration Information Division at 02-27967162; for questions about application, please browse the Agency website (https://www.immigration.gov.tw) or consult the municipal or county/city service center at your place of residence.
15. By reading the above terms and conditions and continuing to use the System, you agree to abide by the terms herein.
